Novel "Saka no Ue no Kumo" (Clouds Over the Hill)

The novel "Saka no Ue no Kumo" was written by Ryotaro Shiba, who was born in Matsuyama, Japan. The novel is based on the real-life events of Shiba's family, who lived in Matsuyama during the late 19th century. The novel tells the story of a young man named Saka no Ue, who is sent to the city of Kuma to study law. Saka no Ue's life is complicated by his love for a woman named Nao, who is already taken. The novel explores themes of love, family, and societal norms of the time.

Delivering the Saka no Ue no Kumo Museum

The museum is designed to be a place of discovery and learning. It is divided into three main sections: the historical section, the literary section, and the educational section. The historical section focuses on the history of Matsuyama and the people who lived there. The literary section explores the life and works of Ryotaro Shiba and his family. The educational section is designed for children and families, offering interactive exhibits and activities to help them learn about the novel and its historical context.
